RightMarch.com PAC Endorses Independent Joe Kennedy for U.S. Senate from Massachusetts “This Kennedy Is The Best Candidate For The ‘Kennedy Seat’”

WASHINGTON, DC - William Greene, Chairman of the conservative online political action committee RightMarch.com PAC, announced today their endorsement of Independent candidate Joe Kennedy in the upcoming special election to fill the late Sen. Edward Kennedy's seat.

“This is an incredibly important election,” said William Greene, Chairman of the RightMarch.com PAC. “Not only is it symbolic - this was Ted Kennedy's seat - but the winner of this seat will either be the forty-first vote against socialized health care, or the sixtieth vote for Obama, Reid and Pelosi.”

The special election, to fill the remaining two years of Sen. Kennedy's term, will be held on January 19th. Besides Joe Kennedy (who is not related to Ted Kennedy), Democrat Martha Coakley and Republican Scott Brown will also be on the ballot. “Our PAC has ‘maxed out’ in donations to the Kennedy campaign,” said Greene. “We’re also running independent radio ads and making phone calls statewide, and our video ad comes out next week. We believe Joe Kennedy is the only true limited-government candidate in this race and is the right person for the job, and we’re willing to go all out for his campaign.”
